Credit Extended to the Private Sector stood at E14.9 billion at the end of January 2019 reflecting a month-on-month contraction of 0.1 per cent, driven by a slowdown in credit to Businesses. Despite the overall decline, growth was recorded in credit to Other Sectors and Households & Non Profit-Making Institutions Serving Households (NPISH). Year-on-year, Private Sector credit depicted an increase of 5.9 per cent.

Credit Extended to Businesses depicted a month-on-month contraction of 2.5 per cent to settle at E6.9 billion at the end of January 2019. Partly offsetting the decline was an expansion in credit to the Construction sector which rose by 2.7 per cent over the review month.

Credit Extended to Other Sectors amounted to E2.0 billion at the end of January 2019 depicting a growth of 2.8 per cent from the preceding month. The rise was supported by credit to Public Non-Financial Corporations which rose by 12.1 per cent month-on-month. Year-on-year, M2 fell by 0.8 per cent.

M1 contracted by 8.2 per cent to close at E5.7 billion at the end of January 2019. The decline in M1 was attributed to Transferable Deposits which decreased by 9.2 per cent to E5.1 billion. Currency Outside Depository Corporations on the other hand, surged by 0.8 per cent to E603.1 million.

Quasi Money Supply narrowed by 1.5 per cent over the review month to settle at E11.6 billion, from the E11.8 billion observed in the previous month. Source: Other Depository Corporations & Central Bank of Eswatini

Domestic Liquid Assets of the banking industry amounted to E4.7 billion at the end of January 2019, representing a contraction of 6.4 per cent when compared with December 2018. The fall in banks' liquid assets was mainly explained by the decline in Commercial Banks' balances at the Central Bank and their currency holdings. Consequently, the liquidity ratio stood at 29.3 per cent lower than the 30.6 per cent registered in the previous month. Compared on an annual basis, the Banks' Domestic Liquid Assets expanded by 1.9 per cent.
